Information for Keynote Speakers Producing a Written Paper (OR54)

General Guidelines

Style
A review paper of the field and pointing out future research directions

Extended Deadline
13 June 2012

Process
We will read all the papers and lightly edit them. They will not be peer reviewed. Camera ready copy by 1st July 2012

Length of Written Paper
3,000 to 5,000 words

Format of Written Paper

When producing your paper, please format this using the guidelines for the Journal of the OR Society; see:
http://www.palgrave-journals.com/jors/author_instructions.html

Submissions

Please let our OR54 Programme Co-ordinators + Keynote Paper Editors know by 1 June 2012 if you intend to submit a Keynote paper: -

Robert Raeside, r.raeside@napier.ac.uk and Galina Andreeva, galina.andreeva@ed.ac.uk

A 300 word abstract with the title would be required please.

Please send a Microsoft Word copy of the full paper to Robert and Galina by the deadline 1st July 2012.